

70 MONROE N. & M. FRIEDMAN 70 MONROE

CHEAPEST TRADING PLACE IN GRAND RAPIDS.

? Why do you always find us busy? The answer is simple: A house selling goods at small margins, buying in large quantities, disposing of goods rapidly, increasing facilities constantly, buying more, selling more.

? WHAT DOES IT INDICATE? An appreciation by the public of our indefatigable efforts to please, to undersell, to maintain the high standard accorded us for lowest prices for quality represented.

Corner Ottawa and Monroe Streets.

TO-DAY'S sermons in all the churches of the country will have for their text "Peace on earth, good will to men," the words engraved on the famous Liberty Bell, in Independence Hall in Philadelphia.

This is done at the request of the Pan-Republic Congress Organizing Committee and the Human Freedom League, and to-day is chosen because it is the first Sunday in the fifth century after the discovery of America.

The People Shout,
The Bands Play,
The Bells Ring Out

IT'S SURPRISING!

The amount of business we have done in spite of the warm weather, since we opened our sale of the Wile, Stern & Company clothing stock surprises us. But the surprise is not only on our side. Our patrons are both

SURPRISED AND DELIGHTED

At the extremely low prices that rule in this great sale—several country merchants have found this an excellent opportunity to replenish their stocks at less than regular wholesale prices—everybody says that they never saw good clothing so cheap. But see for yourself. YOU will be surprised to see such good, stylish clothing sold so unprecedentedly low.
